INVITATION

On behalf of the SPIR Board of Directors and our members, I am excited to invite you to participate in the 13th International Meeting of the Society for Pediatric Interventional Radiology (SPIR). For the first time, this meeting will take us to the southern hemisphere to the beautiful city of Sydney, Australia.

This year's theme, "Beyond Horizons," reflects our society's vision of expanding boundaries—scientifically, geographically, and technologically—to explore new frontiers in our field. This serves as an opportunity to challenge current practices, explore new ideas, and uncover groundbreaking approaches to pediatric care.

The Society was founded over a decade ago from a shared commitment to enhance children's care through image-guided, minimally invasive techniques. This small group has grown over the years, driven by the passion of some of the most innovative minds in interventional radiology and their vision to "provide better care to sick children and their families in a minimally invasive manner." SPIR is now the largest pediatric interventional radiology community in the world, with members representing physicians, nurses, allied health professionals, trainees, and medical students from across the globe who are interested in and dedicated to advancing pediatric interventional radiology. We have come a long way, but there is still much work to be done. Besides the limited access to skilled professionals for service delivery, the availability of appropriate equipment for children and the development of new solutions to the unique challenges in pediatric care are formidable challenges for the community. This is where support from the industry for collaborative efforts becomes vital. The scientific meeting represents an excellent opportunity to create and foster relationships between industry partners and the pediatric interventional radiology community.

Last year's meeting in Toronto was an astounding success. It was the most attended since the Society's inception, with over 200 registrants. This year, we hope to expand our horizons further with broader participation from the global PIR community. The program for this year will be packed with exciting content, including:

- Panel Discussions—Experts will engage in thought-provoking conversations on everyday topics related to the practice of Pediatric IR, ranging from system-focused PIR topics to the role of Artificial Intelligence and Robotics.
- Debates – Questioning existing practices and investigating innovative strategies for complex cases.

- Showcasing New Technologies— Industry partners will have opportunities to present their latest products and technological advancements to attendees.
- Extreme IR Session – highlighting the most complex and innovative procedures in Pediatric IR.
- Global Experiences – Sessions showcasing Pediatric IRs from various regions sharing their unique experiences from local PIR practices.
- Pediatric IO – Focused sessions will include discussions on advances and applications of PIR in pediatric oncology.
- Special Focus on Nurses, Technologists, and PAs – A dedicated session where nurses, technologists, and physician assistants can come together to discuss and share their experiences independently.
- Scientific Sessions – Featuring abstracts chosen from the finest submissions in Pediatric IR, providing a platform for innovative research and new discoveries.

Why Sponsor the SPIR Annual Meeting?

We are grateful to our industry partners for their unstinted support over the years without which the Annual meetings would not have been possible. The annual scientific meeting offers an exceptional platform for vendors to engage directly with a global audience of Pediatric IRs, including physicians, technologists, nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, and trainees. By sponsoring the event, you will:

- ✓ Gain Direct Access to Decision-Makers – The meeting will attract leading Pediatric IR specialists and healthcare professionals from around the world, providing you with valuable face-to-face interactions.
- ✓ Showcase Your Innovations – Our interactive exhibition area will allow you to display your latest products and services, giving attendees the opportunity to explore and experience cutting-edge solutions firsthand.
- ✓ Enhance Your Brand Visibility – Your company's presence will be highlighted through multiple channels, including event signage, digital communications, and printed materials.

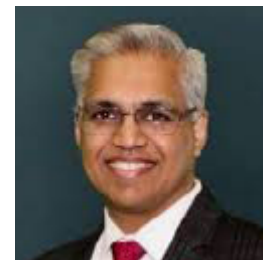

Our ongoing collaboration with industry partners has been vital to the success and advancement of Pediatric IR. Engaging with representatives from leading companies helps us stay current with the latest devices and products and fosters the development of new solutions to improve patient care.

We are pleased to offer a variety of sponsorship packages tailored to help you maximize your exposure and engagement with attendees. By supporting this meeting, you will play a key role in driving innovation and excellence in Pediatric IR while gaining valuable access to decision-makers and thought leaders in the field.

Please find the enclosed Exhibitor Prospectus with detailed information on sponsorship opportunities and benefits. Should you have any questions or require further information, please feel free to contact our PCO, Natacha Costa from NC Events via ncosta@ncevents.com.au or +61 439 841 048.

Thank you for considering this exciting opportunity. We look forward to welcoming you to Sydney as we explore new horizons together!

Warm regards,

ABOUT THE SPIR

@socpedsir

@society-for-pediatric-radiology

The Society for Pediatric Interventional Radiology is an international organization dedicated to excellence in Pediatric Interventional Radiology. The Society unites experts from centers across the world and gives them a forum to discuss, debate and develop this specialty together. Our annual congress provides a platform for teams to share their expertise and learn how to apply the latest IR techniques in children. SPIR supports research initiatives in a number of regions, recognizing that in order to innovate and improve, we need to collaborate and learn from each other. SPIR has members from over 20 nations and actively seeks to support those who may be delivering PIR in relative isolation. We work with training schemes to attract emerging talent to our specialty and encourage Members-in-Training participation via our meetings and education programs.

SPIR works with other organizations such as SIR, SPR, ESPR, CIRSE, SIDI, ASPVIR and the Chinese SPIR to raise the profile and influence of pediatric IR. We also reach out to nations where PIR is not yet a reality, so that in time, every child in the world has access to minimally invasive, life-changing treatment.

SPIR MISSION STATEMENT

To support and advance the specialty of Pediatric Interventional Radiology for the purpose of improving patient care through the following goals:

Patient Care

To promote excellence in clinical care of children through the practice of pediatric interventional radiology

Education and Training

To sustain the development and growth of pediatric interventional radiology through a focus on education and training.

Research

To advance the future development of pediatric IR through research, critical practice evaluation and innovation.

Communication / Collaboration

To provide a forum and infrastructure for networking, communication and collaboration, to support current and future pediatric interventional radiologists (PIRs) within a multidisciplinary environment.

Public Relations/Advocacy

To foster recognition of SPIR within the medical and hospital communities, radiological societies and in the general public.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The SPIR Annual Meeting will provide the opportunity to do the following:

1. Understand treatment standards and future alternatives for a range of complex pediatric diseases that benefit from minimally invasive procedures.
2. Update participants' on new strategies for practice management, training and career development.
3. Critically evaluate minimally invasive approaches to challenging procedural situations.

TARGET AUDIENCE

- Pediatric Interventional Radiologists from North America, South America, Europe, Australia, Africa, Asia
- Allied Health Professionals who practice pediatric interventional radiology
- Members-in-Training who practice pediatric interventional radiology
- Pediatric Radiologists and Healthcare providers with an interest in learning more about interventional radiology.
